

Steps to complete the Qualified Charitable IRA Rollover Distribution, (QCD) Age 70 1/2 Instructions from Perkin Simpson, Executive Director of ABF:

First, as a supporting organization, we American Baptist Foundation, cannot accept contributions directly from the IRA Institution. They must go to your charity, NAME of Charity/Ministry. Please have the IRA institution, broker or bank send the check to charity/ministry and payable to Charity/Ministry. Use charity/ministry tax ID if required. A memo of instruction to the charity can be noted.

1. If money is to go to an endowment managed by the American Baptist Foundation:
The charity/ministry treasurer should deposit the transferred money to their general account and when funds received make new check payable to American Baptist Foundation with memo FBO NAMED Endowment Acct#_____
2. Send check with memo of instruction to:

ATT: Perkin Simpson
American Baptist Foundation
420 W. Germantown Pike
East Norriton, Pa. 19403

Requirements:

- The donor must already be age 70 ½ on the date of distribution
- Donations can be up to $100,000
- Donations satisfy the Required Minimum Distribution (RMD) requirements.

Steps:

- Donor should contact the IRA custodian and tell them they are interested in making a Qualified Charitable Distribution
- It is likely that the will have to complete a QCD form, or send written instructions to the IRA custodian (The IRA custodian will let them know).
- The donor MUST request that the check be made payable directly to the church or ministry. The check should NOT be made to the donor. If they wish, the donor can forward the check to the ministry, but it must be payable to the ministry.

Please note:

- Ensure that no taxes are withheld – this is a non-taxable event if the requirements are met
- Just to reemphasize – The check MUST be made out to the charity (the church or ministry). Charity/Ministry NAME. Please send to your charity or ministry address and deposited to their account. Use your church tax ID if required.

The treasurer can then send us a check, Payable to the American Baptist Foundation with a memo, FBO of the _____ Endowment, Acct# _____
